

RECORDS DESTRUCTION REQUEST: HOW DO I FILL OUT THE FORM?

1. Select a form. Both forms are fillable PDFs. The images included below are based on the Records Disposition Request form.
 - a. The Records Disposition Request Form is for a traditional request to permanently destroy documents. Once destroyed, the university will hold no copy of these records.
 - b. The Scanning and Microfilming Request Form is for a retrospective scanning project, which is when your department takes files that have been stored in one format and transfers them to another (such as paper to PDF). This form is required before you destroy the original paper copy. It is less intensive in the amount of information that it requests.
 - i. Note: work scanned during the normal workflow process does not require a form; only the transfer of previously stored files to digital format.
2. Fill out name and department. The form should be submitted by a fulltime USPS or A&P employee. At the top of each form there is an area that requires your initials to acknowledge that requirements have been met for destruction.
3. Select the retention schedule. The commonly used retention schedules at UCF are

	NAME	DEPARTMENT	DATE

The records listed below are correctly represented, have met their retention requirements, and are not needed for audit requirements or pending or imminent litigation. We request approval for the records listed below to be disposed of in the manner appropriate for the document type. No copy of any type is retained by the university. Initial:

Note: For items being microfilmed or scanned, where the record of copy is being retained in digital or microfilm format, there is a separate form, Scanning or Microfilming Request available on our website in the left column under Links: General Records Schedules. Additional schedules with descriptions are available on the Florida Department of State: Division of Library and Information Services' website.

- a. Note: Documents must have already met their retention period based on the schedule selected before you submit the form.
- b. Most commonly, the schedules used are GS1-SL [State and Local Government Agencies] and GS5 [Public Universities and Colleges], but others exist for specific areas such as healthcare, law enforcement, and building departments. Please review the schedule titles to see if your area has a specialized schedule.

- c. All schedules are searchable using CTRL+F to search for key words. If you have difficulty selecting the proper schedule or item number, contact UCF records management at 407-823-2351 or RMLO@ucf.edu and we will assist you in determining the proper schedule and item.
4. Once you have selected the appropriate schedule you will have the information for the first 4 columns of information (schedule number, item number, title, and retention period).
